Language: Chinese

Area of Coverage: China

Subjects Covered: Labor unions; labor emulation drive; democratic management; labor problems.

Scholarship Evaluation: Popular consumption; informative

Review: Brochure has 104 questions and answers on labor problems grouped under ten broad subjects: labor emulation (competition movement), democratic management and the relations between labor and capital, union membership, operation and organization of unions, uniformity in union organizations, and the problem of jurisdiction, wages, transport workers, cooperatives, statistical work, educational and cultural activities. Seeks to answer some of the questions concerning daily operations of the union and the movements in which they are involved and gives a picture of the reaction of workers to their unions. Seems to have been written for new union organizers, since many of the questions involve such simple matters as what name the union should take, and the jurisdiction under which a new union should be organized.
